

Robert Pajos, new CEO of Cellnex Nordics

Barcelona, 15 April 2025. Cellnex Telecom ("Cellnex"), Europe's leading telecommunications infrastructure operator, has appointed Robert Pajos as the new CEO of Cellnex Nordics, the joint venture between Cellnex (51%) and Stonepeak, a leading alternative investment firm specializing in infrastructure and real assets (49%), that operates in Sweden and Denmark. Pajos will be a member of Cellnex's Executive Committee.

Robert Pajos is Swedish, with a master's degree in Computer Science from the Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm, and has accumulated over 20 years of international experience in the technology and telecommunications sector at companies such as Ericsson and Telia, where he has led and managed large-scale transformations in markets including Latin America and countries like Estonia.

"I am excited to take on this new challenge," says Robert Pajos. "My clear objective is to collaborate with our customers and partners in Sweden and Denmark to develop and strengthen the business. Together, we aim to capture all the growth opportunities ahead in these markets, thus contributing to Cellnex's leadership in Europe."

"Telecommunications infrastructure is critical to the digitisation of the continent, and our efforts will focus on supporting this transformation. At the same time, sustainability and environmental care remain central to our approach. By leveraging shared infrastructures, we strive to optimize resources and promote efficiency."

Cellnex operates a total of 5,057 sites in the Nordic countries, 3,360 in Sweden and 1,697 in Denmark.

About Cellnex Telecom

Cellnex is Europe's largest telecommunications towers and infrastructures operator, enabling operators to access a wide network of telecommunications infrastructures on a shared-use basis, and thus helping to reduce access barriers and to improve services in the most remote areas. The Company manages a portfolio of more than 130,000 sites, including forecast roll-outs up to 2030, in 10 European countries, with a significant footprint in Spain, France, the United Kingdom, Italy and Poland. Cellnex, which is listed on the Spanish Stock Exchange, is part of the selective IBEX35 and Euro Stoxx 100 and enjoys outstanding positions on the main sustainability indices such as CDP, Sustainalytics, FTSE4Good, MSCI and DJSI Europe.
