

▶ 30 de abril

Junta General
ACCIONISTAS

ANNUAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

20
26

FAQs

Madrid

I. NOTICE OF ORDINARY GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING, VENUE AND ATTENDANCE

1. On what date and at what time will the next General Shareholders' Meeting of Cellnex Telecom, S.A. (hereinafter "Cellnex" or the "Company") be held?

The General Shareholders' Meeting is expected to be held at 11:30 a.m. on 30 April 2016 on second call.

2. Where will the General Shareholders' Meeting be held?

In Paseo de la Castellana, 81, 28046 Madrid.

3. At what time will the General Shareholders' Meeting venue open?

Admission to the venue will begin at 10:30 a.m., one hour before the General Shareholders' Meeting starts.

4. Who is permitted to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting in person?

Shareholders who can prove that they hold at least 100 shares, registered in their name in the corresponding book-entry register five days prior to the date of the Meeting, may attend the General Shareholders' Meeting (i.e., on 24 April 2026).

Likewise, the holders of shares in a smaller number than that previously provided for attending the General Shareholders' Meeting may also be represented by one of them if, grouping together, they have that number of shares.

5. What are the requirements to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting in person?

Anyone wishing to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting must hold 100 or more shares. To attend, shareholders must first obtain the appropriate attendance and voting card – which will be issued by a member entity of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U. (Iberclear) or such body as may replace it, or by the Company itself – and present it at the venue, duly completed for this purpose, together with their ID card or other valid official document generally accepted as proof of identity.

Where a person is attending as a representative or proxy of a shareholder, the attendance card must be signed by the shareholder.

A person attending as a representative of a shareholder who is a legal person must also provide a copy of the power of attorney to prove that he/she has the authority to act on the shareholder's behalf.

6. What mechanisms are available to allow shareholders who are not entitled to attend to nevertheless participate in the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Shareholders holding fewer than 100 shares, who are not entitled to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting, may:

- a) Vote remotely before the General Shareholders' Meeting: To do so, shareholders must fill out the remote voting form to be found on the corporate website (www.cellnex.com) and send it to the Company, together with the attendance card.
- b) Vote by electronic means: Shareholders may vote electronically through the corporate website (www.cellnex.com), following the instructions to be found on the website.
- c) Shareholders may also appoint a proxy electronically via the corporate website (www.cellnex.com), following the instructions to be found on the website.
- d) Forming a group with other shareholders: Shareholders who are not entitled to attend may group their shares with those of other shareholders, so as to reach the minimum number required to attend (100 shares), and then appoint a representative. In this case, shareholders forming a group may appoint a proxy to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting on their behalf, using the form of proxy printed on the attendance/proxy card issued by the member entities of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U. (Iberclear) or such body as may replace it, or by the company itself. That card, duly signed by the shareholders forming a group, must be delivered to the proxy, who must present it on the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders may also appoint the Board of Directors as their proxy by sending the attendance/proxy card, duly signed, to their bank or to the Company or by electronic means. As stated on the attendance/proxy card, when no other proxy is named on the card, it will be understood that the Chair of the General Shareholders' Meeting is appointed as proxy.

7. If several joint holders are named on the attendance card, can all of them attend?

If several joint holders are named on the attendance card, only one of them may attend the General Shareholders' Meeting. For the purposes of Article 126 of the Spanish Companies Law, it will be presumed that any joint holder who appoints a proxy, votes or attends in person has been appointed by the other joint holders to exercise their rights as shareholders.

8. Will I be able to enter the General Shareholders' Meeting if I arrive after it has started?

Shareholders or their proxies who arrive late at the venue, after the attendance cards have been collected in, may attend the General Shareholders' Meeting. However, such late-arriving shareholders and proxies (and the appointing shareholders) will not be included in the attendance list, nor will they be entitled to speak or vote.

9. How many votes does a shareholder (or a shareholder's proxy) have at the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Shareholders and their proxies attending the General Shareholders' Meeting will have one vote for each share held or represented.

10. Will those attending receive a gift?

No.

11. Will an attendance bonus be paid to those attending the General Shareholders' Meeting?

No.

12. Can a shareholder request that one or more items be added to the agenda before the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Shareholders representing three percent or more of the share capital may request that a supplement to the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting be published, setting out one or more points to be included in the agenda, provided each new item is accompanied by an explanation of the reasons for its inclusion or a documented proposal for a resolution.

13. How can a shareholder exercise the right to request an addition to the agenda? Is there a deadline for doing so?

Shareholders may exercise this right by delivering a certified notice to the Company, which must be received at the Company's registered office, addressed to the attention of the Corporate Governance Department, at Juan Esplandiú Street 11-13, 28007 Madrid, within five days of the publication of the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, indicating the identity of the shareholder or shareholders making the request, the number of shares they hold, as well as the items to be included on the agenda, accompanied, where appropriate, by all the necessary or appropriate documentation.

14. May a shareholder submit alternative proposals on matters already included in the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Shareholders representing three percent or more of the share capital may submit reasoned proposals for resolutions on matters already included, or to be included, in the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

15. How can a shareholder exercise the right to submit proposals on matters already included in the agenda? What is the deadline for doing so?

Shareholders may exercise this right by delivering a certified notice to the Company, which must be received at the Company's registered office, addressed to the attention of the Corporate Governance Department, (Juan Esplandiú Street 11-13, 28007 Madrid), within five days of publication of the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, indicating the identity of the shareholder or shareholders making the request, the number of shares they hold, as well as the proposed resolutions, accompanied, where appropriate, by all the necessary or appropriate documentation.

II. PROXY APPOINTMENT AND ATTENDANCE BY MEANS OF DISTANCE COMMUNICATION:

16. How can I appoint a representative or proxy to act on my behalf in the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Every shareholder who is entitled to attend may appoint another person, who does not have to be a shareholder, to act as his/her representative or proxy at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders may appoint a proxy by filling out and signing the form of proxy included on the printed attendance card, giving the name of the proxy and, if so desired, voting instructions.

The proxy appointment must be in writing and must be signed by the appointing shareholder.

The person appointed proxy will be required to present the attendance/proxy card, together with his/her ID card or other official document generally accepted as proof of identity.

To appoint a proxy by electronic means, shareholders should follow the instructions given on this website and in the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

17. Can I appoint more than one proxy?

Shareholders may appoint only one proxy.

18. Can a proxy represent more than one shareholder?

A proxy may act on behalf of more than one shareholder. A proxy who acts on behalf of more than one shareholder may split his/her votes according to the instructions given by each shareholder.

19. Can a proxy be revoked?

A proxy is always revocable, and a shareholder can revoke a proxy appointment at any time.

If the appointment was made via the corporate website, it must also be revoked via the website; and once it has been revoked, a new proxy may be appointed.

A shareholder who attends the General Shareholders' Meeting (physically or electronically) will be understood to revoke all proxies, whatever the date of the appointment.

20. Do I have to pay to appoint a proxy electronically?

No, this is a free service for shareholders to facilitate participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

21. Can I use the electronic service to appoint another person who is not a shareholder?

Yes, you can appoint any other person, whether a shareholder or not, to act on your behalf.

22. Do electronic proxy appointments have to be accepted by the proxy?

No. Electronic proxy appointments do not have to be accepted by the proxy, who will be required to present the attendance/proxy card on the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting if he/she physically attends the General Shareholders' Meeting.

23. What do I need to be able to appoint a proxy by electronic means?

To appoint a proxy by electronic means you will need to (a) have an National Electronic Identity Document (DNIE); (b) have a legally recognised electronic signature, under the terms provided for in Law 6/2020, of 11 November, regulating certain aspects of electronic trust services, provided that it is based on a recognised electronic certificate for which there is no record of its revocation and that (i) it is an Electronic User Certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES) dependent on the Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre, (ii) an Electronic Certificate issued by CAMERFIRMA, or (iii) it is incorporated into the National Electronic Identity Document; or (c) register using the "username and password" credentials that the shareholder will receive at his/her email address, after verification of his/her identity and shareholder status, through a special registration form available on the Company's website (www.cellnex.com).

24. If several holders are named on the attendance/proxy card, who is entitled to vote or appoint a proxy electronically?

Any of the joint holders named on the attendance card may vote or appoint a proxy electronically, provided that they fulfill the requirements indicated under point 23.

For the purposes of Article 126 of the Spanish Companies Law, it will be presumed that any joint holder who appoints a proxy, votes or attends in person has been appointed by the other joint holders to exercise their rights as shareholders.

25. Is there a deadline for the receipt by the Company of proxy appointments and votes cast remotely before the General Shareholders' Meeting?

In order to be valid, both the proxies conferred and the votes cast prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting by remote means of communication (postal correspondence or electronic means) must be received by the Company at least one day before the date scheduled for the General Shareholders' Meeting at first call (i.e., no later than twenty-four hours on 27 April 2026).

26. Who can appoint a proxy/vote on behalf of a minor?

Only the father, mother or legal guardian of a minor may appoint a proxy or vote in person or electronically via the corporate website on the minor's behalf. Proof of authority to act on the minor's behalf must be provided.

27. If a proxy is appointed electronically before the General Shareholders' Meeting and another proxy is appointed in writing (by physical delivery or postal correspondence), which appointment is valid?

The last proxy appointment received by the Company within the period specified for this purpose will always prevail.

28. What should the person appointed proxy electronically or remotely do?

At the venue, the proxy must present the attendance and voting card issued by a member entity of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U. (Iberclear) or such body as may replace it, or by the Company itself, together with their ID card or other valid official document generally accepted as proof of identity.

29. Are legal persons also permitted to appoint a proxy?

Yes.

30. Where can I get help if I have a technical problem that prevents me from appointing a proxy electronically?

If you encounter a specific problem during the electronic proxy appointment process that prevents you from continuing, we suggest that you write to the email address indicated for this purpose in the electronic form of proxy you will find on the corporate website (www.cellnex.com). The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the electronic proxy appointment mechanisms when advisable or necessary for technical or security reasons.

In any case, the company will not be liable for any loss or damage caused to the user by failures, overloads, line failures, connection failures or any other event of the same or similar nature beyond its control that may prevent the use of the electronic proxy appointment mechanisms.

31. If I am a shareholder who is not resident in Spain, can I vote or appoint a proxy by electronic means?

Shareholders who are not resident in Spain may, like resident shareholders, appoint a proxy or vote electronically via the corporate website (www.cellnex.com), following the instructions on the website.

32. How are votes cast remotely before the General Shareholders' Meeting counted?

Shareholders who cast valid votes remotely will be deemed present at the General Shareholders' Meeting for the purposes of establishing a quorum.

III. RIGHT TO INFORMATION

33. How can I obtain the legal documentation and information I need in order to attend and participate in the next General Shareholders' Meeting?

From the moment the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting is published all the documents which the law requires to be published, as well as any other information which it has been considered advisable to be available, will be at the shareholder's disposal through the corporate website (www.cellnex.com).

Likewise, shareholders will also have the right to examine the documentation listed in the notice calling the General Shareholders' Meeting at the Company's registered address or, where legally appropriate, request their immediate shipment or delivery, free of charge, by submitting an email at jg2026@cellnextelecom.com.

For more information regarding the manner in which their rights are exercised in relation to the General Shareholders' Meeting, they may contact the Company's Corporate Governance Department (both at the registered office indicated above and at Passeig de la Zona Franca 105, 08038 Barcelona) as well as by telephone at +34 93-5031450 (Monday through Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) or by email (jg2026@cellnextelecom.com).

See section V below in relation to the right of shareholders who attend and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting by electronic means that allow them to connect in real time with the venue in which the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held.

34. How can shareholders exercise their right to information before the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Until the fifth day prior to the scheduled date of the General Shareholders' Meeting (i.e., no later than midnight on April 24, 2026), shareholders may request in writing the information or clarifications they deem necessary or ask in writing any questions they deem pertinent about the items included in the agenda. the information accessible to the public that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the last General Shareholders' Meeting was held, or about the auditors' reports referred to above.

Requests for information, clarifications or questions may be made by communication addressed to the Corporate Governance Department of the Company (both at the registered office indicated above and at Passeig de la Zona Franca 105, 08038 Barcelona) or by email to the address (jg2026@cellnextelecom.com), including in any case the corresponding documentation accrediting the status of shareholder.

For more information regarding the manner in which their rights are exercised in relation to the General Shareholders' Meeting, they may contact the Company's Corporate Governance Department (both at the registered office indicated above and at Passeig de la Zona Franca 105, 08038 Barcelona) as well as by telephone at +34 93-5031450 (Monday through Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) or by email (jg2026@cellnextelecom.com).

IV. GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING PROCEDURE: SPEAKING AND PASSING OF RESOLUTIONS. MONITORING THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

35. What is the quorum for a General Shareholders' Meeting?

A General Shareholders' Meeting is quorate on first call when shareholders holding 25% or more of the subscribed shares with voting rights are present in person or by proxy. On second call, a General Shareholders' Meeting is quorate whatever the percentage of capital present in person or by proxy.

For a General Shareholders' Meeting to be able to resolve on an issue of bonds, a capital increase or decrease, a transformation, merger or split, a transfer of all the assets and liabilities of the transferring company, a transfer of domicile to another country, a disapplication or limitation of pre-emption rights or, in general, any amendment to the articles of association, a quorum of shareholders (present in person or by proxy) holding at least 50% of the subscribed capital with voting rights is required on first call. On second call, a quorum of 25% of the share capital will be sufficient, although in this case if less than 50% of the capital with voting rights is present, resolutions on the matters indicated above will require a majority of two-thirds of the votes cast at the General Shareholders' Meeting in person or by proxy.

36. What should I do if I would like to speak at the General Shareholders' Meeting?

According to the General Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, shareholders who wish to speak at the General Shareholders' Meeting must put their name on the list of speakers, once the General Shareholders' Meeting has started. To do that, they must identify themselves to the Secretary, the Secretary's staff or the Notary, as the case may be, giving their details and the number of shares they hold or represent.

Any shareholder is entitled to speak during the discussion of the items on the agenda. For interventions by telematic assistance, the provisions of the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall apply.

The Chair and, as the case may be, the members of the Board of Directors or the persons appointed for that purpose will then address the attendees to present their reports. After that but before voting on the items on the agenda, the Chair will invite comments and questions from shareholders.

Shareholders will speak in the order in which they are called to speak by the Presiding Committee, once the order of speakers has been decided by the Chair of the General Shareholders' Meeting. Before stating their comment or question, shareholders or their proxies who have requested to speak should first identify themselves, stating their name, whether they are acting on their own behalf or on behalf of a shareholder (in which case they should name the shareholder they represent), and the number of shares held or represented. Likewise, the Chair or, where appropriate, the Secretary of the General Shareholders' Meeting will read out any interventions received telematically.

See section V below in relation to the right of shareholders who attend and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting by electronic means that allow them to connect in real time with the venue in which the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held.

37. How can I exercise the right to information during the General Shareholders' Meeting?

When invited to speak, shareholders may request any information they consider necessary about the items on the agenda or any clarifications about the publicly available information provided by the Company to the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) since the last General Shareholders' Meeting or the auditors' report.

If a shareholder's right to information cannot be satisfied during the General Shareholders' Meeting, the directors will provide the requested information in writing within seven days of the end of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

However, the directors will not be obliged to answer specific questions from shareholders in the cases provided by law.

See section V below in relation to the right of shareholders who attend and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting by electronic means that allow them to connect in real time with the venue in which the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held.

38. If I attend the General Shareholders' Meeting in person (physically), when do I vote?

Once the round of comments and questions has ended, the Chair will put the resolutions included in the agenda and any other resolutions not included in the agenda to the vote.

39. How are the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting approved?

The Board of Directors has agreed to request the presence of a Notary to draw up and certify the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting. Under Article 203.2 of the Spanish Companies Law, minutes that have been certified by a Notary are not subject to approval.

40. Does the Company have any system to allow shareholders not present in person to follow the proceedings of the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Yes. The General Shareholders' Meeting can be followed live on the internet: www.cellnex.com.

Watching the live webcast of the General Shareholders' Meeting does not constitute attendance at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

41. If I am unable to attend, how can I know what resolutions were passed at the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Cellnex will publish details of the quorum and the results of the voting at the General Shareholders' Meeting in the General Shareholders' Meeting section of the Company's website www.cellnex.com within five days of the end of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

V. ELECTRONIC ATTENDANCE AT THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

42. What is electronic attendance?

Shareholders (or proxies) who are entitled to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting, they may attend and vote by electronic means that allow them to connect in real time with the venue in which the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held.

Electronic attendance at the General Shareholders' Meeting is an extraordinary measure and is additional to the various channels already available to shareholders of the Company who wish to take part in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

43. What must I do to be able to attend electronically?

Shareholders (and proxies) who wish to use the electronic attendance mechanisms must register on the Electronic Attendance Platform via the Company's website (www.cellnex.com).

44. Who may use the electronic attendance mechanisms?

Shareholders of the Company or their validly appointed representatives.

45. Do I have to pay to attend electronically?

No, this is a free service for shareholders (and proxies).

46. What if I register to attend on first call but the General Shareholders' Meeting is held on second call?

In that case, attendees who registered on first call must repeat the registration process in order to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting on second call.

47. What should I do if I want to intervene telematically at the General Shareholders' Meeting?

Shareholders (and proxies) who attend the General Shareholders' Meeting of Shareholders electronically and who wish to intervene or request information or clarifications in writing or submit questions in writing about the items on the agenda, the publicly available information provided by the Company to the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) since the last General Shareholders' Meeting or the auditors' report, may do so via the Electronic Attendance Platform from the moment their right to attend has been confirmed.

Interventions, requests for information and, where appropriate, proposals were appropriate, must be sent in writing through the link provided for this purpose on the Telematic Assistance Platform from the time of registration on the Telematic Assistance Platform and until the Chair declares the valid establishment of the General Shareholders' Meeting, with only one written submission permitted per registered attendee. In the event that the shareholders (or their representatives) wish their intervention to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, they must clearly and expressly indicate this in the heading of their letter.

48. If I attend the General Shareholders' Meeting electronically, when do I vote?

Shareholders (and proxies) attending the General Shareholders' Meeting electronically may vote on resolutions included under items on the agenda via the link and voting form provided for this purpose on the Electronic Attendance Platform from the time they register until the moment when the voting on the proposed resolutions begins at the General Shareholders' Meeting venue.

The Company shall send to the shareholder who casts his/her vote by electronic means an electronic confirmation of the receipt of his/her vote.

49. What should I do if I want to stop attending electronically and have the Notary take note of my departure?

Shareholders (and proxies) attending the General Shareholders' Meeting electronically who wish to place on record that they have left the General Shareholders' Meeting, so that their vote is not counted (reflecting an abstention instead), must do so by sending an electronic message through the link provided for this purpose on the Electronic Attendance Platform on the Company's website (www.cellnex.com). Once a shareholder (or proxy) has given notice of his/her intention to leave the General Shareholders' Meeting, any subsequent action he/she may take electronically will be without effect.

VI. ELECTRONIC FORUM

50. What is the Electronic Forum for Shareholders?

The Electronic Forum for Shareholders is a mechanism for communication between Cellnex shareholders before the General Shareholders' Meeting.

It is not a channel for communication between the Company and its shareholders.

51. What is the Forum for?

Shareholders who have registered as Forum users following the instructions set out in the Shareholders Forum section of the website may submit the following types of messages for publication:

- a) Proposals intended to be submitted as a supplement to the agenda announced in the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- b) Requests for endorsements of such proposals.
- c) Initiatives to reach the percentage necessary to exercise a minority right provided for by law.
- d) Voluntary proxy offers or solicitations.

Any request for publication of a supplement to the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting aimed at including one or more items on the agenda requires the support of shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital and must be delivered by certified notice, which must be received at the Company's registered office within five days of publication of the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, fulfilling the rest of the requirements described in sections 52 and 53.

In no case will the mere publication on the Forum of a proposal to supplement the agenda, on its own, entail the acceptance of that proposal and, therefore, it shall not amend the agenda announced in the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

52. Who can access and use the Forum?

Access to and use of the Forum are reserved exclusively to individual Cellnex shareholders and to voluntary associations of Cellnex shareholders validly constituted and registered in the Register authorized for this purpose by the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) in accordance with the provisions of Article 539.4 of the Spanish Companies Law.

Registered users may access and use the Forum so long as they continue to be Cellnex shareholders or members of a duly constituted and registered voluntary association of Cellnex shareholders.

53. How can I access the Forum?

The Shareholders Forum can be accessed via the Cellnex website (www.cellnex.com), following the instructions on the website.

54. When can I access the Forum?

The Forum is made available on the Cellnex website at the time of the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, so that shareholders can access and use the Forum until the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

55. What is Cellnex's role in relation to the Forum?

As Forum administrator, Cellnex is responsible for ensuring, as far as possible, that any messages published are in accordance with the law, the Forum rules and the requirements of good faith and reserves the right to reject or withdraw any message that does not meet this condition.

It may also delete messages posted by shareholders who lose their shareholder status before the General Shareholders' Meeting and any posts related or linked to them.

56. Where can I find more information about the Forum?

From the moment of publication of the call notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting, Cellnex publishes the Forum rules, where more information about it can be found.